FIRE FIGHTERS ARE GUESTS AT BANQUET

People Who Saved The Residential Section Highly Honored

COL. TIDWELL IS TOASTMASTER

Work Of Battlers Of Flames Praised By Many Speakers

James F. Dougherty, of Ridley Park Philadelphia, well known sportsman, has been selected to referee the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby, Mont. on July 4.

The banquet given by property owners, whose homes were saved from the Tavern fire, by the faithful services of volunteer firemen, and the members of the Albany, Decatur and L. & N. shops fire companies, was largely attended and proved to be a most enjoyable occasion. The banquet was held in the west room of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. last night and two long tables were used to serve diners.

The list of those present is as follows: J. Thomas Rainey, W. F. Rauschenburg, Melvin Hutson, J. O. Marsh, E. H. King, B. S. Stroup, J. F. Houston, Gurnie Houston (a small boy, the one who first gave the alarm of the Tavern fire); L. L. Carden, R. A. Phillips, O. H. Clemmons, W. S. Hasslett, M. E. Kilgore, M. B. Reynolds, Clarence Gady, B. L. Malone, C. W. Mathews, Dallas G. Martin, H. J. Jones, Harry Gass, W. H. Day, Tennis Tidwell, F. T. Adams, P. S. Henderson, A. B. Mathis, C. D. Patterson, Frank Alexander, Frank Namie, W. A. Carden, Thomas Amos, Elbert Lovelady, Earl Lee, Earl Hartwell, J. W. Holland, Ed. Clark, Cooper Thomas, Chas. Prosser, E. J. Hartselle, Paul J. Longier, W. E. Wallangue, John Cobb, J. E. Blair, J. W. Woodkin, Leonard Allen, J. D. Thompson, James M. Grady, Al Finkelstein, John King, Willie Dunnaway, Herman Papenburg, W. H. Sorber, C. B. Murphree, O. A. Moore.

Following the banquet the following made speeches, Carl D. Patterson, Henry Day, B. L. Malone, Col. Tennis Tidwell, and E. C. Payne.

Mr. Payne had arrived too late for the banquet, but was asked to speak because of his known interest in the water supply for the Twin-Cities.

Mr. Payne recited the history of the water question, and urged that all consumers of water, and those who had buildings to protect from fire look well to their rights.

B. L. Malone stressed the responsibility of all citizens and corporations to do their full duty to the community, declaring that "those who took part of the common good" were to be condemned.

Mr. Malone, as did all the speakers paid high tribute to the heroic work of the three fire departments.

Carl D. Patterson, as one of the prime movers in the plan to honor the firemen, spoke at some length. Mr. Patterson reminded that his house was insured for only 50 per cent of its value, and that such was the case with about all property. This speaker said that had the Tavern fire spread a lot of cheap houses would have had to take the place of the present residences in the neighborhood of the Tavern site.

Henry Day, paid a glowing tribute to the heroic and unselfish work of the firemen, and thanked them in a feeling manner.

Leading firemen present were called on but modestly declined to speak.

Col. Tennis Tidwell acted as toastmaster and in his preliminary address said that soon after the Tavern fire the property owners who lived near the hotel and whose homes were saved by the regular fire companies and by the volunteer firemen, held a council as to what could be done to show proper appreciation for the great service rendered them. It was agreed that the best and most hospitable means of expressing gratitude was to give the banquet of the evening. Col. Tidwell was unstinted in his praise of the firemen.

The banquet was served by a company of loyal women, who saw to it that every diner was shown every consideration.

SIMPSON COACH HAS RESIGNED POSITION

(Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, June 27.—Coach George L. Reynolds, for four years head mentor of basketball and baseball at Simpson school, preparatory department to Birmingham-Southern college, has tendered his resignation effective immediately to this institution.

Coach Reynolds has signed a contract to coach football and baseball at the newly established Birmingham University school.

The announcement that Coach Reynolds has resigned from Simpson, a high school which during his coaching regime has taken a leading stand in prep athletics of the south, came as a surprise to his followers over the state.

Coach Dewey "Dick" Webb, a former room-mate of Coach Reynolds at Birmingham-Southern college and coach of the Sheffield high school athletics teams as well as principal of the school during the past year has been signed to take Coach Reynolds place, Simpson authorities announce.

The new coach while at Sheffield placed a baseball team on the field that was feared throughout north Alabama, giving the Simpson state champion Junior Panthers a hard struggle before conceding the series.

In taking over the new university private school, Coach Reynolds states that he does not expect a championship team in his first few years, having undeveloped material as a whole to deal with, but is confident that his aggregations will be able to give a good account of themselves.

Mooresville Folk Enjoy Barbecue

Quite a number of Twin-City residents are in Mooresville today where they were invited by citizens there to attend a celebration in commemoration of the completion of a new highway in which both the people of Mooresville and the Twin-Cities are deeply interested.

At the time the road which is now completed, was about to be built about a year ago, a number of the business people of Decatur and Albany made substantial subscriptions to the building fund.

The chief features of the Mooresville celebration was a free barbecue, which was enjoyed by a large company of people.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 27.—Complete success attended a re-fueling test made at 9:45 o'clock this morning when 50 gallons of gasoline was transferred from a plane piloted by Lieutenants Virgil Hines and Frank Siefert to the plane in which Captain Smith and Lieutenant Richter are endeavoring to establish a new aviation record.

OFFICIALS CONSIDER SEIZURE OF LINES

Government May Take Over Ships Bringing Liquor Into Port

VOLSTEAD LAW REQUESTS STEP

America, Here-To-Fore Has Been Disposed To Be Lenient

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 27.—Seizure by the United States of foreign vessels bringing liquor in violation of the supreme court decision and treasury regulation is understood to have been considered in a series of conferences today between treasury and prohibition officials.

This far there has been made no attempt to do more than confiscate the liquor itself, but some of the officials who sat in the conferences are understood to have urged that more drastic steps should be adopted.

Participating in the conferences were: Acting Secretary Gilbert and Assistant Secretary Moss of the treasury department; representatives of the state department; Commissioner Blair, of the internal revenue bureau; Assistant Prohibition Commissioners Jones, representing Commissioner Hayes and Chief Britt, of the prohibition unit.

It was pointed out the Volstead act requests the seizure of ships carrying liquor illegally and the arrest of their masters, but that the American government had been disposed to be patient and content itself so far, with seizing only the contraband liquor, but in view of the constant stream of ships arriving in violation of the regulation, it was said a sharp change of policy was under consideration.

OKLAHOMA COUNTY HAS MARTIAL LAW

(By Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 27.—Operations of "lawless mobs that have been committing outrages in Oklahoma county for months," prompted Governor J. C. Walton to proclaim martial law in Oklahoma county, he told the Associated Press today.

The governor said that four other counties in the state were threatened with the same alleged condition that he said existed in Oklahoma county.

Caddo county is on the verge of the same thing he declared.

"I'm going to stamp out mob rule and mob violence out of Oklahoma, if I have to put every county under military law and leave them there as long as I am governor. I have tried and tried to get results through the regular civil agencies without success," the governor declared.

"I am determined to get results. Oklahoma county is going to stay under martial law until I am satisfied I have sufficient enforcement there."

INJUNCTION USED TO PREVENT SHOW

Judge O. Kyle issued an injunction late Tuesday forbidding the Carl Armstrong company from showing here. The injunction was asked for by Attorney S. A. Lynne, who represented the Airdome theatre management. In his argument Mr. Lynne claimed that Armstrong had contracted to appear with his company at the Airdome theatre Monday night and all during this week, but that when the time came for him to put on his performance he refused to do so. Later, on report that Armstrong intended to put on a performance at another theatre, Judge Kyle issued the injunction.

PLANS FINISHED FOR VISIT OF BRANDON

Chamber Of Commerce Directors Hold Good Meeting

MALONE BUILDING IS PLACE CHOSEN

Early Report Sought On Tickets Out For The Banquet

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 27.—Governor Brandon confirms engagement will be with us Thursday without fail.—J. W. Clopton.

The board of directors of the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce met at the Colonial building last night with the following directors present: J. W. Clopton, W. W. Rahm, F. H. Pointer, W. W. Fussell, J. H. Calvin and Henry Davis.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary, Miss Bessie Speake, and approved.

The meeting was devoted almost entirely to a discussion of plans for the "Governor's Banquet" to be given Thursday night at the Malone building.

It was announced that the ladies of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur would serve the banquet.

The Morgan Kiwanis club is taking the lead in the entertainment features of the Thursday night meeting.

One of the attractive features of this part of the program will be the music by the Albany-Decatur concert band which will appear for the first time on Thursday night.

George D. Williamson, chairman of the program committee, stated that plenty of splendid numbers were available, but that they were being held in reserve, in order to accommodate the whole program to the wishes of invited guest-speakers.

The ladies who are getting up the banquet have expressed the wish for an early report on the number of guests who will attend the banquet so that they can arrange the right number of plates.

The banquet is to begin at 7 o'clock p. m.

STATE TO APPEAL FITE CASE DECISION

(By Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 27.—Plans were being made by the state Wednesday to appeal from a decision of a jury acquitting Fred Fite, Birmingham attorney, on charges of unethical practices, reached in circuit court Tuesday night.

Notice that the state would appeal was served by P. O. Biddow, chief prosecutor for the state, immediately after the verdict was announced.

The appeal from a jury decision is permitted in civil matters, such as the Fite case is, and the plans of the state caused no surprise among attorneys who have been watching the proceedings to disbar or suspend Fite.

An answer of "no" was returned by the jury to each one of the 14 counts that were charged against Fite. It is understood that the character testimony offered for Fite had much to do with the decision of the jury.

VIOLENT ERUPTION STARTS IN VOLCANO

(Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 27.—A new and violent eruption broke out this morning near the summit on the southside of Mt. Etna, plainly visible to the naked eye in Catania, says a Rome dispatch to the Central News.

It is feared that the observatory has been overwhelmed.

Professor Carrara reports the new flow of lava is progressing at the rate of a kilometer an hour.

COCA COLA KING, SUED BY WOMAN, MARRIES

Mrs. Onedzma de Bouchelle and Asa G. Candler.

Asa G. Candler, the Coca Cola king and philanthropist of Atlanta, Ga., who is being sued by Mrs. Onedzma de Bouchelle, New Orleans, La., society leader, for breach of promise, started his friends by quietly marrying Mrs. May L. Ragin, a public stenographer, herself a widow with two children. Candler met Mrs. de Bouchelle while she was matron for the maids of honor at a United Confederate Veterans' reunion in Atlanta and became engaged to her, but later refused to marry, and to clear her name she sued.

CHURCH PASTOR IS SEEKING BONDSMAN

In the case of M. J. Smith, a pastor of a nearby negro church, his occupation was not sufficient to keep him out of the county jail where he was this morning, while his friends sought the amount of his bail, $750.

Smith was committed to the county jail on a charge of receiving money under false pretense.

It was alleged at his trial that some young negroes paid money to Smith for a consideration which did not mean "value received."

A receipt was said to have been signed by Smith and another negro, W. M. Thompson.

The receipt is drawn in favor of a negro named Robert Jackson, and it is charged that Jackson is or was a pensioner of the government.

The receipt in question, original spelling and all is as follows: "Receipt of Robert Jackson $22.00, June 23, 1923."

M. J. Smith, $3.00.
W. M. Thompson."

The receipt is now in the sheriff's office. It was explained that the $3.00 on the receipt indicated that $3,000 was still due from Robert Jackson.

Accompanied by negroes who were suspicious of Smith and Thompson Officers Poole and Beasley, went to the residence of Smith yesterday, but when they got there, the door was barred. Smith was found within and arrested, but Thompson is said to have escaped.

It is said by some who know Smith, that the negro has some kind of a government commission in connection with recommending negroes for pensions, and that if the negro appears before the grand jury he will exonerate himself.

R. B. Patton, J. R. Rankin, local attorneys were joined at Birmingham by Roderick Beddow, Sheriff Puryear accompanied the attorneys.

The nature of the ex-sheriff in the case was not disclosed by the attorneys but it is understood he will make intercession in some form for the youth.

Wilson was convicted on a charge of slaying Kirby Cole. The pardon board refused to interview with the finding of the court, but Governor Brandon granted a three weeks reprieve.

Diligent efforts on both sides of the case have been carried forward.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 27.—Governor Brandon is at present in closed session with attorneys of Tom Wilson who are making a final effort to save him from the gallows Friday for the slaying of Kirby Cole at Athens, Ala., last winter.

Officials of the governor's office said that no action was expected by Governor Brandon on the matter today.

CITY OF ALBANY HAS DISPOSED OF BONDS

The sale of the Albany refunding bonds has been consummated and the terms of the sale have been confirmed by the Albany city council to Brandon, Gordon and Waddell, New York and Boston.

The negotiations for the sale to the Boston people were conducted by City Attorney Melvin Hutson and City Treasurer F. A. Bloodworth.

This sale is one of the few municipal bond sales made here direct with New York bond buyers.

To make sure the printed bonds meet all legal requirements some further precautions are necessary it is said, and either Mr. Bloodworth of Mr. Hutson may go to Boston soon for a consultation with Storey, Thordyke, Plmer & Dodge who are the legal advisors of the buyers of the bonds.

The sale of these bonds enables the city to pay off a certain bond issue now due which amounts in the neighborhood of $95,000.

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

THE PRESIDENT PROPOSES THE SENATE DISPOSES.

According to dispatch accounts of President Harding's recent speech in St. Louis, he no longer will contend against the United States Senate in matters concerning the foreign affairs of this country.

Mr. Harding's position regarding the authority of the Senate in our foreign relations, is being taken as an abject surrender on his part, and as a complete reversal of his original position.

Many writers go further and say that Mr. Harding has in effect changed the constitution of the United States in so far as he makes the Senate the supreme authority in foreign relations, whereas the President and the Secretary of State have hitherto been the ruling power in all foreign affairs.

The Senate began its climb to power when in the matter of the German treaty its will stood, instead of that of the Secretary of State. At the time of the disarmament conference, Mr. Harding's deference to the Senate was apparent. It is pointed out that the President's final and complete surrender to the Senate in foreign affairs came about gradually since he left that body and became the chief executive. One prominent writer declares that Harding's speech at St. Louis means:

"The supremacy of the senate in foreign affairs is fully acknowledged."

"The President may only propose. The senate disposes."

Whether Mr. Harding has the right to give away the Presidential power or at least the power always allowed the President in foreign affairs, will remain an open question for some time to come. If the Senate does the foreign relation job in fine style or to suit the country all may go well, but if bad foreign relations conditions arise, Mr. Harding's recent stand will be severely criticized.

THE BASEBALL QUESTION

There is no doubt in the writer's mind but that the thud of the willow and the dust arising around home plate is missed in the Twin Cities.

In Monday's Daily a news item on the front page told of numerous fans going to Huntsville to see that team in action. It isn't that the writer is not in favor of this for he is merely bringing this as an example of the enthusiasm for the national pastime in our own back lot.

Why not have a ball club? There isn't a single murmur as to why there shouldn't be such an organization here. On the other hand there are many reasons that have been stated and restated as to why a club should be organized. First it is a good clean sport, then should we have a winning combination the Twin Cities have to be further recognized in the northern portion of our state.

It is all very well to cite all these arguments, but getting to the basis of things the real trouble is the fact that the fans of the two towns are too close fist to turn loose for the benefit of the public enjoyment. We have been told that to be a success we must first take a chance. The writer isn't a gambler but taking a chance of this sort and gambling are vastly different. As it always has been it remains for some go-getter to start the ball going, after that others will follow.

THE PUBLIC WANTS THEIR MONEY'S WORTH IN GOOD ROADS.

With the return of better weather conditions, the roadways of the state and county will greatly improve. If good weather continues to prevail for another week, the roads should be in fairly good condition. In the event the roads do not respond to good weather conditions, so to speak then the road builders may expect to come in for much harsh and just criticism.

As long as the rainy season continued, the roads were very bad, the traveling public was inclined to suspend judgment. And although the roads were well nigh impassable, travelers gave the benefit of all doubts to the road authorities and to the road builders. But now with the return of normal weather conditions, unless the roads improve, the judgment of the court of public opinion will go strongly against those responsible for the present system of roads and the way they are kept.

In Morgan county since there are so many new roads under construction, time will have to be given for the "new" to wear off other roads and for them to get settled down upon solid foundations, before a final verdict is given as to the efficiency or inefficiency of the work of road building in this county.

One thing is fairly certain and settled, however, the traveling public demands their money's worth. All know that large sums of money are being spent on our public highways, city streets, and accordingly large improvement is expected in our road ways, in the state, in the county and in the towns and cities of the county.

STOPPING VEHICLES TO LOOK AND LISTEN.

In a few days one of the most progressive of the Southern states will have a law in effect requiring that drivers of automobiles stop in front of every railroad crossing.

The regulation is not an unreasonable one. Already a law here requires street cars to stop before crossing a railroad, and that the operators of the cars shall alight and look well for the locomotive before proceeding. It is right that the burden of watching out should rest heavily on the drivers of the lighter vehicles. They are so much more easily turned aside or stopped, than the locomotive, which often has attached to it a long string of heavy cars.

Men who are in the habit of risking their lives and their automobiles in an effort to beat the engine driver, will probably continue the practice, and not let a little thing like breaking the law and paying a fine stand in their way. Nevertheless a law that puts responsibility where it belongs is always advantageous. There is no way to make any body obey any law; the only thing the state can do is to punish after a law has been violated.

It would prove a great inconvenience to the "speeding" public for Alabama to require its automobile drivers to stop, look and listen before starting to cross a railroad, but preventative measures are the cheapest and the most satisfactory in the long run.

New York Letter
by Lucy Jeanné Price

NEW YORK, June 26.—Not even the unusual giddiness of New York's street clothes this season satisfies the newcomers from southern and eastern Europe, who have longed in vain to wear again the vivid shawls and green skirts that they packed and brought with them to this country. But they have found a use for them now that hot weather is here, and the East side has burst into gorgeous coloring in consequence. Self-constituted civic censors put up a terrible protest last summer because the children of that district prepared themselves for the kindly showering by the fire department by taking off most of their clothes. Last week the hydrant showers were started again to give the children a chance for a little coolness; and the home made bathing suits, prepared by careful mothers for the avoidance of more visits of the shocked emblazoned the whole section. Making bathing suits for the children, it seems has been one of the winter tasks of the women in all of the foreign settlements, and for them they have used the printed woolen shawls they brought from the Prague, trouserettes of vivid silk, in orange, blue, red and green, from Italy, and scarfs from Spain. Balkans, Hungarians and Russians have all contributed their bit of gayety and never were carnival days more brilliant than the hour when the firemen appear to turn on the hose.

Are we returning to the days of the dime novels? Walking along upper Broadway the other night, I counted eleven newsstands with all of the old-timers on display in neat new covers. Nick Carter and Frank Merriwell predominating. Where do Manhattan boys read them—so far from haymows?

It seems to be a terrible thing to be away from England in the twinkling season. I have no idea what wrinkles may be, but Claudius R. Taft, the weeping English boy who had already made three ineffectual attempts to get free passage to England, appeared again the other day, seeking on the pier for a chance to be a stowaway because of them. He was stopped and warned against further efforts, but he told the reporters on the dock that he must get back home because it was the season for wrinkles, and his father even now is undoubtedly going wrinkling. As he was escorted from the pier by a detective, he stopped to ask when the next ship leaves for Liverpool.

"Helen of Troy, New York" is the first swing into musical comedy by George S. Kaufman and Marc Connelly, but its travesty is as clever as those super-humorous authors achieved in "Dulcy" and "Merton of the Movies". The music and lyrics by Bert Kalmar and Harry Ruby include one particular amusing song—"What Makes a Business Man Tired? Only a Business Man Knows." There is a gorgeous semi-Russian ballet in which all the celebrated trade-marks are reproduced, and advertising and

SPORTS

Golfers from all over the south are back home today, loud in their praise of the manner in which the annual southern amateur golf tournament was conducted in Birmingham during the last week.

Several Alabamians gave an excellent account of themselves during the tournament play. It was Glen Crisman, 17 year old Selma player who was the low qualifier and who went far along in the play. It was Seibels of Birmingham, present Alabama champion who played himself into the semi-finals. Bobby Baugh, Jr., and Dr. A. B. Harris, both of Birmingham, went strong well into the play.

Walter Stewart, star Birmingham twirler, seems to have hit a stride that will bring him to the top of the Southern league pitching averages when released in September. Stewart's last performance was a 1 to 0 victory over Chattanooga.

Perry Adair and Frank Godchaux who battled it out in the Southern amateur meet finals last Saturday in Birmingham both displayed a superb brand of golf throughout the meet. Despite the fact that Adair had played little during the recent months, he played a remarkable game at times.

PICKED UP

The price of dishonesty is the fear of being found out.

It's easy to be philosophical with the other man's troubles.

The trouble is that a lot of folks get married who should never have even become engaged.

Indifference is the hardest obstacle progress has to overcome.

Where you find conceit it is folly to look for much of anything else.

No one has yet invented an alarm clock that can arouse indifference.

The income tax shows where the money comes from and then sets us all to wondering where it goes to.

The chances are that the man who doesn't live within his present income won't be able to live within it when it grows larger.—Detroit Free Press.

A FEW REFLECTIONS

Knowledge and timber should be seasoned before using.

A shallow mind offers poor anchorage for broad opinions.

To attain happiness one must give up the pursuit of pleasure.

Patience is the art, or rather the practice, of enduring human stupidity.

No wonder egotists find the world so ugly, they see only themselves in it.

There is more fatigue in laziness than in labor. Someone has said: It's the things we don't do that tire us most.

The excesses of our youth are drafts upon our maturity, payable with interest about thirty years after date.

EYE-OPENERS

Life is what you make it.

The photographer knows how a woman really looks.

Matrimony is life's greatest eye-opener.

A fellow falls in love for a woman's reason.

Thank God for rotten weather; it makes us love spring.

SENTENCE SERMONS

Love comes just exactly once—in a while.

Ambition needs to look out for broken rungs.

The thankless child merely proves what we all knew.

A perpetual grudge is almost as annoying as an endless giggle.

PARTY FOR MISS MEYERHARDT

Mrs. J. S. Patterson gave a most delightful party on Tuesday evening for her house guest, Miss Diana Meyerhardt, of Atlanta, Ga., whose engagement was recently announced to Mrs. Patterson's son Sydney.

The Patterson home on Perry street was tastefully decorated in potted plants and lovely gift flowers. Miss Meyerhardt was attired in a dainty dress, white canton crepe, with silk lace panels and wore a silver bandeau in her hair. Mrs. Patterson's dress was black beaded crepe and Miss Dorothy Patterson, who assisted in entertaining, wore green rochnara crepe with white trimmings.

Bridge was the diversion of the evening and the prize for high score among the ladies, a compact, was received by Mrs. C. L. Saunders and the men's prize, a deck of cards in leather case, was awarded to T. M. Jones, Jr.

Mrs. Frank Lide cut the consolation and the honoree was presented a beautiful cut glass perfume bottle. Tempting refreshments were enjoyed late in the evening.

This hospitality was extended to Miss Meyerhardt, Sydney Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ponsomby Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. B. FISHERMEN LOST WEEK ON OCEAN

One Pie and Raw Potatoes All
They Have to Eat While Adrift in Storm.

TELL EPIC OF THE SEA

New York.—The two Freeport (L. I.) fishermen who disappeared a week ago have returned with an epic of the sea. Caught in a snowstorm that isolated their little motorboat 20 miles to sea from Freeport, their compass went wrong, and they began a drift that ended when a schooner from Nassau picked them up 65 miles southeast of Freeport.

Capt. Hergen Smith, an 180-pounder, and Harry Matthews, 140 pounds, who spent five days adrift. They were landed at Long Beach by the schooner Catherine M., which had picked them up after the men had drifted for a week.

One Still Sleeping.

The men went home to Freeport in a taxi from Long Beach and straight to bed. At noon Matthews was still sleeping, but Smith was up and told the story of the terrible week.

Smith said he and Matthews went fishing. They started back at 10:30 a. m., when something went wrong with their compass and they found themselves heading out to sea. Soon they realized they were lost. Then they stopped their motor and let the boat drift. It drifted until Friday afternoon throughout a great blizzard.

Suicide Pact Suggested.

The only provisions they had were some raw potatoes, a gallon of drinking water and a pie. For three days before they were picked up they had no food nor water. Matthews drank sea water and became delirious. While in this condition he tried to persuade Smith to split a bottle of iodine in a suicide pact. At least one ship passed every day, Smith said, but always too far away to hail until the schooner passed Friday afternoon.

The boat began to leak badly before the men were picked up by the schooner and they took the linings out of their overcoats to calk the seams.

DARES LION FOR HIS SISTER

Lad, Aged Fifteen, Enters Beast's Cage to Earn Money to Pay for an Operation.

London, England.—The happiest, proudest boy in London is fifteen-year-old Alfred Garcia, the son of an omnibus conductor.

Alfred recently was offered $250 if he would enter a cage of circus lions with the trainer. For two days the boy considered the offer, his thoughts constantly turning to the thirteen-year-old crippled sister, who would be benefited immeasurably by the operation the money would make possible.

"Lions or no lions, I'll do it," he decided, and engaged a first-rate surgeon. Then he fulfilled his part of the bargain.

The surgeon, however, learned of the circumstances and insisted upon giving his services without charge, whereupon Alfred promptly turned over the $250 to his sister.

50,000 Partners In the Business of Serving the Public

This large number of men and women represent the "Louisville & Nashville Family"—an organization whose members are working shoulder to shoulder in the important business of providing safe, efficient and economical transportation for the territory served.

From the boy who carries water for the construction gang, to the chief engineer; from the track-walker to the general manager; from the call-boy to the mechanical superintendent; from the ticket seller to the traffic manager; from the freight clerk to the general freight agent; from the youngest clerk in the auditing, purchasing and legal departments to the comptroller, the chief counsel and the executive head—this big family of L. & N. employees appreciates, individually and collectively the work in which they are engaged, and they work out the problems of their duties not simply to the end of earning a livelihood, but for the satisfaction that comes with having had a part in the building of this great Nation.

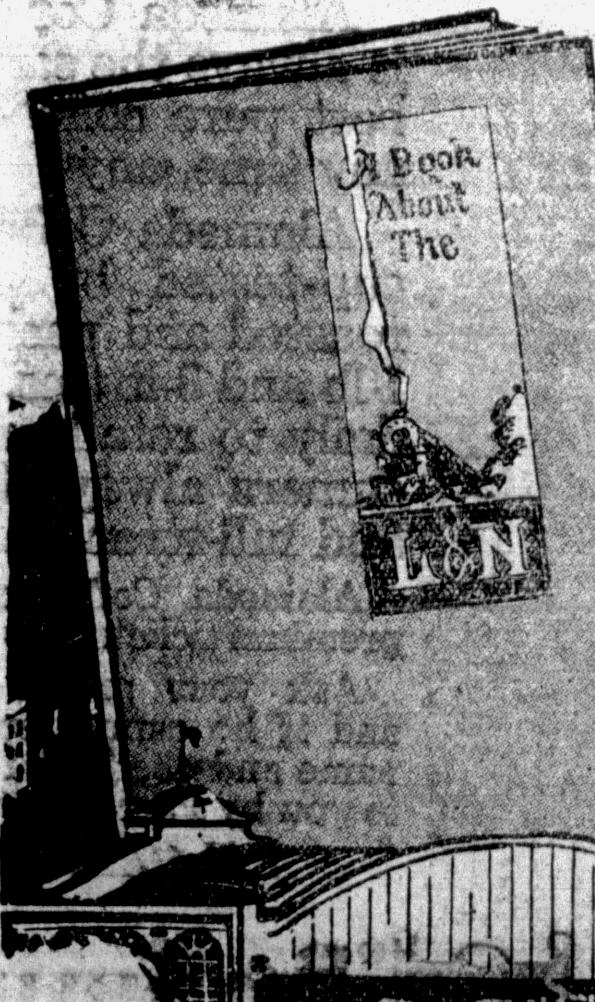

Loyalty, courtesy, on-the-job efficiency and teamwork are the four sterling qualities which have made possible the building of this property. Every employee of the L. & N. Railroad, from the president to the humblest clerk, looks on his or her individual job as a vitally important one in the general operation of the Road, and feels that in the performance of his or her duty, a distinct service to the community and the country as a whole—as well as to the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company—is being rendered.

In order that these employees and the public in general may know, in detail, more of this great industry of transportation; in order that they may be informed as to the progress made by this and other railroads; and in order that they may gain an insight into the future of the Country by knowledge of its past progress—the Louisville & Nashville Railroad has just issued

"A Book About The L. & N."

This book is complete and interesting, and a copy will be placed in the hands of every employee or other person who desires one. The management feels that this book will be carefully read by every one of the 50,000 L. & N. partners in the business of serving the public; and that in addition, the readers of this newspaper will find much to interest them in the pages of this book. The suggestion is therefore made to any one desiring a copy of the book, that upon request of any official of the L. & N., it will be forwarded without charge.

NEWS OF MOULTON AND LAWRENCE COUNTY

MOULTON, Ala., June 27.—(Special.)—Emmett Collier, prisoner in the Lawrence county jail for two years or more, and convicted at the last term of court and given a life sentence as an alleged accomplice in the murder of John Tyler about three years ago, has been notified that he will not be granted a new trial. After the sentence he took an appeal and asked to remain in the county jail until such be granted or denied rather than begin the term of service. His cousin who has been confined in the jail for the same time expected his trial to come up in August; it is said that the two men accompanied the man who did the shooting early one morning after Tyler had been called from the jail. Tyler was believed to have reported several men who were engaged in illicit distilling. Collier, who has a wife and several children, has been a model prisoner as far as conduct goes; when two prisoners made efforts to escape in the winter he made no effort and in no way supported them; for the past three or four months he has had the freedom of the corridors instead of the closer confinement of the cells.

The Lawrence county officials have received word that Floyd McCluskey of the east part of the county, has been found and arrested at Akron, O., his brother, Ralph, was convicted last term of circuit court, and given life sentence for the murder of a young man named Clarke; Ralph took an appeal and was for several months kept in the county jail where he made two or more attempts to escape. Later he and another prisoner were sent to the Limestone county jail where he waits to see if his appeal for new trial is granted; Floyd was arrested at the time of the murder as an accomplice but later given freedom with bail of $1,000; when his brother was convicted he fled the county.

A much needed rain fell in and around Moulton Sunday afternoon the first that had fallen for a week and after so many months of rain crops and gardens had each begun to suffer though the week of sunshine had been a blessing to the tillers of the soil. In general the cotton outlook is good over the county but unless sunshine and rain come in the right proportions through the summer the late planted corn does not promise a full harvest.

Mrs. John T. Masterson has been ill for several days and became so seriously so Sunday evening that her sons, "Bud" Masterson of Albany and Guy Masterson of Trinity, were called to her bedside; at this time she seems much improved.

Mrs. Robert Byars, who has been for several weeks in a hospital at Birmingham where she went for an operation, was able to return home Sunday.

Mrs. Laura Seamans of Albany and Mrs. I. N. Bradley, of Birmingham, returned to their respective homes Monday; for several days they had been in Moulton, to be at the bedside of brother and father, R. M. Young, whose death occurred last week.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Reid are rejoicing in the arrival of a new boy in their home.

The Alexander will case for which a new hearing has been granted, will be heard here Wednesday.

Judge W. R. Jackson made happy two couples Sunday with the marriage vows spoken; Leonard Strout and Miss Ida Royer of east part of the county and Lee Blankenship and Miss Julia Greenhill of near Landersville.

Under the auspices of the Civic club the court house grounds will be opened Wednesday evening as a public park with a story hour for the children and cream for all.

Walter Greenhaw and his sister, Miss Lucy were over from Florence Normal Sunday to see their brother Bryan Greenhaw of Montgomery.

Supt. Earl M. Hodson returned Friday from a meeting of superintendents at Florence; Mrs. Hodson and Earl M. Jr., accompanied him on the trip for a stay with relatives near Athens.

Miss Lufburrow, of Georgia, is the guest of her brother, Mr. L. B. Lufburrow and wife.

Bryan Greenhaw of Montgomery is visiting his parents and friends in and around Moulton for the week.

The Misses Chenault of Albany are visiting Mrs. Mollie Dowling, their grandmother this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Farley visited relatives and friends in Hillsboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stubbs of Florence where Mr. Stubbs is attending Normal were in Moulton Monday.

Mrs. Hettie McLemore and son Emmett left last week for their home at Opp, Ala., after several weeks in Moulton.

Fletcher McKelvy, an aged citizen living just out of Moulton, is quite ill and has been for several weeks.

George Ellis, a prominent citizen of the Wren community south of Moulton is quite ill.

ORGANIZED

Sam, the colored driver of an ox team, saw a little lizard crawling up a tree. He flourished his long whip and very deftly snapped off the lizard's head. Further along the road, with skillful precision, he picked a horse off the fence with the same weapon. His skill as a marksman was next exhibited on a chipmunk that showed his head above the ground.

A white companion finally said: "Sam, take a crack at that hornet's nest." Sam grinned and replied: "No sah, no sah, boss; them fellows is awganized."

No Arrest.

He bumped into her car. "I had my hand out," declared the girl indignantly.

"Such a tiny hand," murmured the young man. "No wonder I didn't see it."

Then the traffic cop waved them all along.

A Compromise in Kissing.

Hartselle News

The Mexican bean beetle is playing havoc with the bean crops of many local gardeners during the past week, and it really seems an assured fact that the bean crop will be greatly curtailed. Some have resorted to poisoning the pest, but so far little progress is being made.

The street improvement ordinance recently promulgated by the city authorities is now well under way, and with the pretty weather abounding, splendid progress is being made with the work.

Principal J. H. Riddle, of the Morgan county high school announces that the next term of this institution will begin September 5. All the teachers to be assigned to the school have been secured, and the enrollment promises to be well up to the standard of former terms.

Dr. H. C. McRea, county health officer, has announced that he will be in Hartselle Saturday, and during that time will inoculate any who may present themselves against typhoid fever.

A drastic ordinance has been recently passed by the city authorities, which has to do with malaria control. It is the purpose of the ordinance to reduce the breeding places of the mosquito to a minimum.

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Brown were held Thursday morning at Moss Chapel. Mrs. Brown was a widow, and had resided here for a number of years. She leaves several sons and daughters.

A movement is on foot, backed by County Agent J. C. Ford, to interest growers here and elsewhere in the county in the raising of fall Irish potatoes has been carried on in a small way, and it is quite likely that with the assistance of the county agent, a much larger acreage will be planted this season than formerly.

Some effort is being made to guarantee the price for fall grown potatoes for seed purposes, as that obtained for the shelled potatoes. Several growers have already signed up in the campaign which is being carried on, and a meeting of those interested in the matter is called for next Saturday, to be held in the office of the county agent.
